

THE PARIS DECLARATION AND PBA

- The Paris and Accra Declarations could be a support to find most efficient means for PBA
- But they could also be a hindrance
- Who decided on the formulations in the Paris Declaration?
- What is most stressed in the Declaration?
- Why is it most stressed?

FIND THE ADDED VALUE FOR RESULTS!

- Start from the government's (planning) process and try to find out what's not working as in delivery of politically decided commitments
 - Support that area
 - If you can do it and uphold the principles of the PD (ownership, alignment, accountability, coordination) it will probably be more efficient
 - But there might be other things that are as important
 - Integrate (completely) with the government's planning cycle (more this afternoon)!

WHAT IS A PROGRAMME BASED APPROACH? (OECD DEFINITION)

- "A way of engaging in development cooperation based on the principle of co-ordinated support for a locally owned programme of development, such as a national poverty reduction strategy, a sector programme, a thematic programme or a programme of a specific organisation."

FEATURES OF THE PBA THAT COMES BACK (OECD DEFINITION)

- Government leadership
- One Programme (for each area of intervention)
- One Budget
- Donor Alignment to Government Procedures
- Trend of increased Donor Alignment to Government Systems

PHASES OF PBA

- Everyone means the same thing. Communication and Information Strategy
- Everyone agrees on how to cooperate
- You need a Plan. A Programme!
- Do you know your capacity?
- Agreement on how to disburse money! Financing mechanisms
- Results. Is there information on results?

PROGRAMME BASED APPROACH

- Who's programmes are we talking about?
 - Implications?
 - Donors are no longer in the centre
 - The overall aim to support the realization of the government's agenda
 - Most efficient way is to find the "individual" need. Each country has its own story.

BEHIVE!

- WHAT POSSIBILITIES ARE THERE TODAY TO INTRODUCE A PROGRAMME BASED APPROACH IN ALBANIA IN DIFFERENT GOVERNMENT AREAS?
 - IS THERE ANYTHING MISSING? ANY PRECONDITIONS THAT ARE NOT THERE?
 - IF SO, WHICH ARE THE PRIORITIES IN IMPROVING THE SITUATION?
